YESTERDAY, - Yesterday was a snowy and exceedingly disagreeable day, and the attendance at the churches was consequently very small. The following is a report of the woo done during the day by the Young Men's Christian Association:—"The alms house and jail services were held with the usual interest, the attendance on the former exercises not being as large as usual on account of the weather. The Sunday prayer meeting at the Methodist Protestant Church likewise suffered from the same cause, but the exercises were of special interest, the addresses were given with earnestness, and the prayers and praises were fervent. This meeting will be held next Sanday in the M. E. Church.

NATURAL CONSEQUENCES. -- As a necess: , consequence of the many excursions last summer petty thieving is now rife. Hardly any thing is safe unless under lock and key, and as plank footways and fences cant well be locked up they are at present paying for the squandered time. Nearly all the footways and plank bridges to Washington for their supply, to our most on Pendleton, near Alfred street, were carried complete, fine and stylish stock of goods. We on Pendleton, near Alfred street, were carried off for fire wood last Saturday night, and havoe have spared no means for the accomplishment is being played with the fences on the suburbs.

CORONER'S INQUEST.-The dead body of a child, about eight or nine days old, of unknown parantage and race, was found in the woods on Mr. R. H. Phillips's farm, in this county, on Friday last. A coroner's inquest was held upon it by Justice Pearce, and a verdict of death from unknown causes was rendered death from unknown causes was rendered. When found the body was neatly attired, and was lying by the side of and partially concealed by a fallen tree.

SATURDAY NIGHT. - Though no disturbances of any moment occurred last Saturday night, the streets were more noisy than they had been for a long time previous. People whose "gruntles had not twisted owre monie a glass of whiskey punch," were seen in all directions, and the restaurants and grogeries must have done a thriving business.

CO-OPERATIVE BUILDING ASSOCIATION .-As will be seen by reference to an advertisement in another column, a meeting of the Gerthe six houses just erected by the Association on worth Columbus street will be sold.

BASKET MANUFACTORY .- Mr. Jos. Schle vogt, at No. 18 North Royal street, makes all kinds of Baskets to order, and has a variety of every description on hand for sale. We hope he will be encouraged by our citizens. He also repairs baskets, and cane seat chairs, at moderate prices.

FIGHT. - A large crowd was attracted to the corner of King and Wasnington streets, early last Saturday night, by a fight which occurred there between two men named Kane and Lucas. The police happened not to be about at the time, but warrants have since been issued for the arrest of the parties.

CANAL NAVIGATION .- The ice breakers at Cumberland opened the canal at that point on Friday last, and navigation throughout the Chesapeake and Ohio and Alexandria canals is still uninterrupted.

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE. - "Year by year those who wish to keep them elves informed in the literature of the day come more generally to recognize The Living Age as the best means for attaining that end within the reach of persons of moderate leisure." This is owing to the fact that The Living Age, being published in weekly numbers of sixty-four pages each gives more than three thousand double column octavo pages of reading matter yearly, and is thereby enabled to present with a satisfactory completeness, nowhere else attempted, whatever is of immediate interest or permanent value in the vast and generally inaccessible mass of foreign periodical literature. - a literature embracing the productions of the ablest living writers in every department, whether relating to history, biography, fiction, poetry, wit, science, politics, theology, criticism or art. As a fresh compilation of the admirable and noteworthy in current literature, including the ablest and most interesting essays, reviews, serial and short stories, poetry, scientific, historical, and political information, it has become invaluable, in the great and growing multiplicity of quarterlies, monthlies, and weeklies, to every person or family of intelligence and taste. The highest critical authorities of the country unite in pronouncing it "the best of all our eclectic publications.

The subscription price ($8 a year) is cheap in proportion to the amount of reading matter ruraished; but for those who desire the cream of both home and foreign literature a stil cheaper offer is made by the publishers (Littell & Gay, Boston), viz:, for $10, they will send The Living Age, weekly, and either one of the leading American $4 monthlies, for a year; or for $8.50 The Living Age and Our Young Folks. "Possessed of The Living Age and of one or other of our vivacious American monthlies, a subscriber will find himself in command of the whole situation. The next volume of The Living Age begins January 1st.
